

1. Where can I get help with finding information for my paper? Come by the Reference Desk of any ACC library or call, email us, use our Chat service from our website – even after we close, or connect with us via IM using our screen name: acclibrarian --- Remember, we're here to help you! Need phone numbers and hours? Call 223-3084.
2. How do I know what textbooks to buy and where can I buy them? Every campus has a bookstore with lists of textbooks or check online at austincc.bncollege.com You must know the title and section number of your class—different sections may use different books! ACC's Student Life also compiles a list of online textbook vendors. The ACC Student Support Center administers a textbook lending library. You must start with a Support Center office to see if you qualify for early access to these books or get details at www.austincc.edu/support/financialaid/center/lendinglibrary.php
Email them at suprctr@austincc.edu Student Support Center textbooks check out for one semester.
Some instructors place their textbook 'on reserve' in the library, with a very limited checkout time.
3. What kind of books can I get at the library? All kinds...for class, for fun, for research or information, in print as well as electronic books...your current ACC ID card is your library card.
4. How long can I keep something I borrowed from the library? All books and videos in the regular circulating collection check out to students for 2 weeks. Items may be renewed for two weeks, and then renewed again for 2 more if no one else has requested them. The date an item is due back is always stamped on an attached paper slip.
5. Where can I use a computer on campus? Bring your current ACC ID to the Open Access Computer Centers (inside or near libraries) for access to workstations with office software and the Internet. Libraries have computers with the online catalog, periodical indexes, e-books, Internet, office software, and many other resources for your research and information needs.
6. Is there wireless Internet on campus that I can access? Yes, there are 2 different wireless networks. All campuses have a wireless network to use with your own laptop. Current students can check out laptops from each library's Circulation Desk for use inside the library on a different wireless network. You must know your current ACCeID number to access either network. You will be able to print from our library laptops but not from your personal laptops.
7. Can I do library research online at home? Almost every one of the 100+ periodical indexes and thousands of e-books are accessible from off campus by using your ACCeID to login when prompted. The library's online catalog is available without a login.
8. Can I use the Northridge library even though I go to school at Cypress? Yes! We are really 1 library with 8 locations. If you see a book or a regular circulating video/DVD that you want to check out, but it is located at another library, you may have it sent from one campus to another. Ask at the library's Reference Desk.
9. How can I learn about the library and do research by working on my own? A fun way is connecting to the "Info Game" from the library's home page. Explore other options under the "Research Help" link at library.austincc.edu
10. Where are the libraries and what are their hours? Call 223-3084 for a list of library Reference Desk phone numbers and hours or go online to our home page at library.austincc.edu and click on "Library Hours" at the top of the home page. Once there, a printable version with maps is also available.
